TERMS OF SALES

1. Our goods always travel at the risk and peril of the recipient, even if they are sold carriage paid. It will therefore be up to the latter to exercise its recourse against the carriers in the event of delay, damage or missing items. 2. To be valid, complaints must be presented within 8 days of receipt of the goods. 3. Matters handled by agents or representatives are binding on us only after acceptance by us. 4. Our delivery times are given only as an indication and can not, in any case, oblige us to pay compensation. 5. A tolerance of 3% in accordance with usage limits our liability for manufacturing defect, missing or damaged, it is calculated on all supplies made during the year. In any case our responsibility can not extend to the contents of the boxes whatever the local uses to which it is made as necessary, except express exemption. 6. In the event of any dispute, the Courts of VALENCE have sole jurisdiction, notwithstanding any clauses to the contrary, and this even in the event of multiple defendants or warranty claims. 7. The goods sold remain our property until full payment of their price. Art.80.335 of May 12, 1980. 8. Our customers are deemed to know the composition and behavior of their products. It is their responsibility to carry out the tests they deem necessary and will be solely responsible for any damage that may arise as a result of incompatibility with our packaging and accessories. The information given by our services is indicative and without obligation on our part. 9. When our supplies will be used for the transport of products or materials subject to national or international regulations, as well as to binding Community Directives, their compliance will be the sole responsibility of the purchaser, in particular the choice of adequate packaging. He will assume sole responsibility for this choice, and for any incompatibility of the packaging ordered with all the legal requirements to which the packaged product may be subject.
